

Subject Name: Development of Contemporary Architecture 1
Course Contents & Hourly break-up
Module Number	Module Name	Topics	Number of hours
1	Late 17th to early 20th century: The emergence of 'Modern'	The techno-economic and socio-cultural changes resulting from the Age of Enlightenment, the Age of Inventions, and the Industrial Revolution; World Expositions; Euro-American responses to the emerging 'Modern' world: Chicago School, Arts and Crafts Movement, Beaux Arts, various Art Nouveau trends, Art Deco, Cubism, Futurism, German Expressionism, Amsterdam School, De Stijl, Suprematism, Constructivism, Minimalism	14
2	High Modern, Late Modern, and the Regional Plurality	Modern American architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright; Modern architecture in Germany and the Exodus to America: Deutscher Werkbund, Bauhaus, International Style; French Rationalism, the 'High Modern' of Le Corbusier and CIAM; Regional Modernisms: Scandinavia, Mexico, Japan, Sri Lanka, etc.; Late Modernism	12
3	Post-Modernism and Emerging Paradigms	Socio-cultural and techno-economic milieu after the Information Revolution, Post-Modernity, Post-Modern discourses; Post-Modern architecture: presence of the past, return to communication, kitsch and pop, deconstructivism, formal hermeticism; Sustainability	8
4	Seminar: Critical Review	Presentation of students' review of assigned works of architecture to include movements, practices, architects, and examples not discussed in detail by the lectures	6