

Subject Name: Field Trip II
Course Contents & Hourly break-up
The course doesn't have any Lectures (LTP = 0-0-0). The course is based on Architectural Educational trips and presentation of documentation of building studied. The Learning/Course Objectives of the course is mentioned below: Documenting historic building using digital tools like videography and photography, Critical appraisal of one chosen building using digital techniques highlighting on architectural details, structural details, building service details, building management system, firefighting system. Group work may be collated to form a video presentation.