

Subject Name: Architectural Design IV
Course Contents & Hourly break-up
Module Number	Topics	Number of hours
Module 1	Methods of space programming- learning through case studies, deriving the number of occupants/ users and formally arriving at unit space requirement. Learning of the use of codes and standards while space programming. Prepare a good business proposal and feasibility report.	27
Module 2	Detailed study of methodology for design conception development, learning from case studies; both Indian and foreign examples. Knowing the site features, Site zoning, and connectivity to site from adjoining roads, topography, following of Bylaws for demarcation of project space and initiation of design with an appropriate concept development.	36
Module 3	Field study / tour for similar contemporary buildings including site visit.Planning considering the requirements of various structural systems using different materials like steel or concrete or composites for accommodating large spans and clear spaces, low ceilings heights.	27
Module 4	Functional connection and dependencies of different spaces within the same building or multiple buildings or building blocks. Understanding the horizontal and vertical network of spaces and buildings for providing smooth connectivity of users. Analysing various built form configurations and bring out their environmental, behavioural and meeting the requirements of pandemic.	27
Suggested Projects: Large housing and institutional complex, Convention Centers, resorts etc.		