

Subject Name: Real Estate Valuation and Economics
Course Contents & Hourly break-up
Module Number	Topics	Number of hours
Module 1	Introduction to the Real estate / Property market
	Types of Value and need for Valuation; Determinants of value; Legal aspects	3
	Micro-economic foundations guiding location and land use, land/property rents, type and intensity/density of property development, timing of redevelopment etc.	4
	Macroeconomic considerations guiding property owner market, property investment market and property development market; Property market and wider economy;	3
	Valuation mathematics for multi-period investments; Yields and Rates of Return.	4
Module 2	Various Methods of Valuations for land, buildings and site infrastructure
	Determinants of land value; Belting method, Residual method for valuation of undeveloped land;	3
	Market approach for property valuation;	4
	Cost approach for property valuation; estimation of depreciation and obsolescence	3
	Income approach for property valuation; Gross Income multipliers	4
Module 3	Financial feasibility studies for Real estate projects
	Cash flow analysis for real estate projects;	4
	Best-Use option study for property development	4