

SYLLABUS :-

During the Office Training, students are to be exposed to different stages of construction on the site and to learn how the drawings of design is executed at the site by preparing a report to facilitate set of working drawings, sketches, annotated photographs etc. to supplement their observations.